

Andrew Ryback
Photo courtesy of Andrew Ryback Photography

There will be a new face at the Vermont Summer Festival this year! Andrew Ryback Photography was recently named the Official Event Photographer for the 2016 Vermont Summer Festival, held for six consecutive weeks from July 5 through August 14 in East Dorset, Vermont. In addition to traditional competition coverage, including prints and digital images, Andrew plans to introduce some innovative photography options at Vermont, giving exhibitors the opportunity to purchase unique products such as “under the jump” photos as well as pillows, lamps and more.

Gustavo Mirabal celebrates a win in Madrid with trainer and rider Luis Miguel Martinez.
Photo courtesy of G&C Farm

Gustavo Mirabal of G&C Farm had fantastic results competing in Europe throughout May. In one week, Gustavo won three classes. He rode G&C Jartrum to victory in CSI2* competition at the Longines Jumping International of La Baule, France on Sunday, May 15, and went on to win back to back classes on May 19 and 20 riding G&C Leroy 136 at the Longines Global Champions Tour in Madrid, Spain.

Canterbury Farm, led by trainers Greg Franklin and Caitlyn Shiels, had great results competing in the HOTT Horse Shows at the Maffitt Lake Equestrian Center in May. Caitlyn and Kadence Darco were reserve champion in the First Year Green Working Hunter division during week one and champion in week two. Michelle Durpetti and Lucca were champion of the Amateur-Owner Hunter division and winners of the Amateur-Owner Hunter Classic in week one. The team had many other great ribbons and results!

Re-discover Santa Barbara in 2016 with the 97th Annual Santa Barbara National Hunter-Jumper Show July 13-17! With hunter and jumper divisions rated National USEF, USHJA, PCHA and more, there is room for everyone to be a part of the tradition. The show will feature a USHJA National Hunter Derby, as well as a $25,000 2016 Markel Insurance Grand Prix Qualifier.

Following rave reviews in its debut, the Ottawa International Horse Show is expanding to offer two weeks of competition in 2016 at Wesley Clover Parks, in the heart of Canada's national capital. The Ottawa National Horse Show will take place from July 13-17 followed by the CSI2* Ottawa International Horse Show from July 20-24, 2016. Canada's own Michel Vaillancourt, course designer at the 2015 Pan American Games, will set the tracks on the expansive grass jumping field during the first week of competition while Guilherme Jorge of Brazil will handle week two in what will be his final professional appearance prior to acting as course designer at the 2016 Rio Olympic Games.

Condolences

Our hearts go out to the eventing community on the loss of Philippa Humphreys. Philippa, 33, of Rockford, Michigan, and her own 13-year-old KWPN/Thoroughbred gelding, Rich N Famous, had a fall while competing in the CCI cross-country at the Jersey Fresh International Three-Day Event in May.

We were sorry to hear that the show world lost Russell Frey, who died of a heart attack. Russell was considered one of the country's top trainers and was a very popular judge. Our condolences to his daughter Lydia, family and friends. He will be missed.

Condolences to the family and friends of Tim Cutler. The loss of the popular veterinarian ophthalmologist saddened the Wellington, Florida, community. Tim was a well-loved and respected vet at Palm Beach Veterinary Specialists.

Equestrians in Tryon, North Carolina, were saddened by the loss of native Austin Brown, the son of Carter P. Brown. Austin won the first Block House Steeplechase in 1946 and was an owner, trainer, steward, course designer and leader in the sport.