JAY DUKE Equestrian Clinics & Course Design

Book Now and Ride with Jay Duke!

Whether you are looking to excel in the show ring or form a better connection with your horse, Jay Duke Equestrian clinics offer something for everyone!

With a 30-year riding and training resume, Jay competed at the top level of show jumping, including Nations' Cup appearances throughout North America. Additionally, he gained a reputation for developing young horses from the ground up. Jay, who retired from the show ring in 2014 to focus on teaching and course designing, draws on his experience to share a lifetime's worth of knowledge with up-andcoming riders, as well as those simply wishing to add a little polish to their equitation or riding routines.
