National Polo Center Standouts

Palm Beach Equine Clinic is proud to sponsor the "Best Playing Pony Award" at the National Polo Center

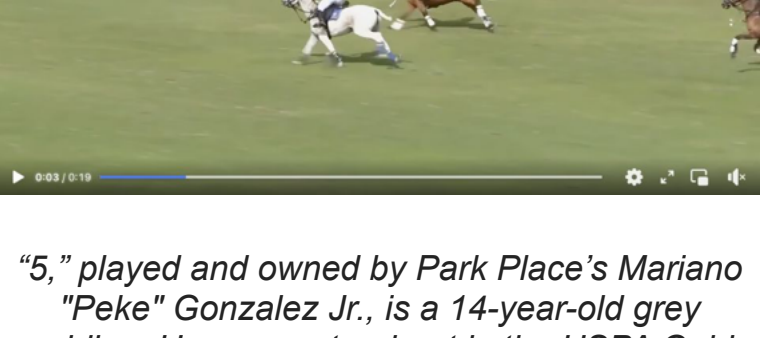

During the 2025 U.S. Open Polo Championship quarterfinal match, the 9-year-old mare J5 Arg Auna (Fax Cherokee x Dolfina Guitarrero), owned by La Dolfina and played by Adolfo Cambiaso in the second chukker, earned the Best Playing Pony title, presented by Palm Beach Equine Clinic. No stranger to the trophy ceremony, she also earned the honor during the 2024 U.S. Open Polo Championship.

Dolfina Carola, a 7-year-old bay mare (Dolfina Guitarrero x Carla) played by Adolfo Cambiaso and owned by La Dolfina, made a statement in the fifth chukker of the U.S. Open Polo Championship. Her performance earned Best Playing Pony honors, presented by Palm Beach Equine Clinic. A true champion, she also claimed BPP titles in the 2024 and 2025 C.V. Whitney Cup finals.

Meet Oriental Chivas Regal, a 7-year-old bay mare (Petaca x Classify) owned by Pelon Stirling and played by Gauntlet of Polo rookie Beltran Laluhé. The mare was awarded Best Playing Pony, presented by Palm Beach Equine Clinic, after a standout performance in the second, fifth, and sixth chukkers of a featured U.S. Open Polo Championship match.

"5," played and owned by Park Place's Mariano "Peke" Gonzalez Jr., is a 14-year-old grey gelding. He was a stand-out in the USPA Gold Cup final, helping Gonzalez score in both the first and fifth chukkers. His performance earned him Best Playing Pony honors, presented by Palm Beach Equine Clinic.

PBEC Wins USPA Outback Cup

The Wellington Polo Tour 2025 season culminated with the USPA Outback Cup Finals. The Palm Beach Equine Clinic team, consisting of our own Dr. Scott Swerdlin, Gringo Colombres, Lucas Diaz Alberdi, and Antonio de Narvaez, came into the final undefeated and fought hard to preserve that record, besting Dracarys Polo Team 11-10 in a very exciting match. Gringo Colombres was named MVP and his horse, BPP Baysur Jilgera, was the Best Playing Pony. Photos by Agus Fonda/Wellington Polo Tour
